

Duchess of Bedford travel advertisement

Canadian Pacific advertisement in The Mitre, November 1928, volume XXXVI, number 2, printed page 14. The company promoted the new Duchess of Bedford's ventilation, beds, sports decks and public rooms. The $200 starting price was for a 16-day Christmas cruise; $300 was the starting price for longer 29-day cruises. These sailings left New York for the West Indies. They do not establish the cost of Laurence and Janet's September 1929 Atlantic passage. The advertisements at the bottom concern other ships and itineraries.
